✦ MICRONEEDLING

Microneedling is a minimally invasive procedure that creates micro channels in the skin which increase the absorption of Teoxane RHA serum which we use during the procedure. This contains Hyaluronic Acid, antioxidants and nourishing amino acids. Microneedling can be carried out anywhere on the body, and helps reduce fine lines, scar tissue and skin pigmentation. It can also be used as a treatment to stimulate hair growth.

Treatments are completed with a cooling skin mask.
